

PRESSTEXT

Anna Ullrich is rapidly emerging as one of the most exciting names in the global electronic music scene. Known for her high-energy DJ sets and distinctive blend of driving techno and bouncy trance, she creates immersive dancefloor experiences that captivate audiences worldwide.

With over 4.5 million streams and more than 100,000 monthly listeners, the Austrian artist is gaining strong international momentum. She is currently working on her debut solo album, while previewing new material through live shows, radio appearances, and curated mix formats.

In 2026, Anna Ullrich will appear at major festivals including Paradiesgarten Festival (hosting her own stage), Poolbar Festival, Donauinselfest and Praerie Festival. Her music is also featured across platforms such as Radio Rudina, FM4, and various online mix series, expanding the reach of her upcoming releases.

Beyond the booth, Anna plays a key role in shaping Vienna's club culture through her nearly sold-out "Achterbahn" events at Praterstrasse Club. These nights are dedicated to supporting and elevating female DJs, while also serving as a testing ground for her latest productions.

Combining musical intensity with a clear curatorial vision, Anna Ullrich stands for a new wave of electronic artists driven, forward-thinking, and committed to creating inclusive spaces where the next generation of talent can thrive.
