

Chanpan

Chanpan began in Chinatown, NYC where Grace Dumdaw (they/them) and twin brothers Lance and Matthew Tran (both he/him) started busking to fund the recording of their first EP. The three quickly grabbed the attention of the fashion and music world alike and later released that initial EP and joined Haru Nemuri on tour in 2024.

The band's growth continued through 2025 with the release of their EP "endlessly," sold-out headline shows in NYC and LA, several viral moments, K-Pop co-signs, and another tour with Post Animal.

2026 brought the release of Chanpan's second EP "autogratis," their first official headline tour, festival dates, and more international shows.
