

FREYA RIDINGS

ANNOUNCES UK & EU TOUR FOR 2026
THE NEW ALBUM MOTHER OF PEARL OUT MAY 29TH

Following the announcement of her forthcoming album Mother Of Pearl (out May 29th on BMG) last month, Freya Ridings has also announced a massive UK and EU tour, including a date at Manchester's Bridgewater Hall on September 30th and London's Royal Albert Hall on October 5th. Tickets go on sale at 10am on Friday 17th April, here. Fans can gain access to pre-sale on Wednesday 15th April by pre-ordering the new album here.

Since breaking through with Top 10 single 'Lost Without You' back in 2017, Ridings has cemented herself as one of the UK's most impressive vocal talents, with the ability to turn her hand to tender balladry and powerful air punch moments alike. That break out single has, to date, been streamed almost half a billion times on Spotify alone, while 2019's self-titled debut album and 2023 follow-up 'Blood Orange' both landed in the Top 10 of the UK Album Charts, sending Ridings around the world and landing her a BRIT nomination for Best Female Solo Artist.

Going into her third album - set for release in May 2026 - Freya Ridings is not the same artist she was before. She's had to reach down into the depths and find reserves that she didn't know she had, and in doing so, she's tapped into a rich seam of anger and wisdom and womanhood that feels as timely now as it ever was. As she says, "Getting to create, sing and play these songs and have them exist in the real world, that feels like winning to me."

Tickets for all shows go on sale on Friday 17th April at 10am local time.
