

Mythos: Ragnarök

European Tour

28.09.2026 - 04.12.2026

Following five sensational years at the world-famous Edinburgh Festival Fringe and critically acclaimed performances around the globe, Mythos: Ragnarök is finally on tour! This genre-defying adaptation of Norse mythology fuses captivating comic theatre with professional wrestling to create an adrenaline-fueled spectacle that is unlike anything else in the world.

This is not a show you watch; this is a myth you witness! Ancient prophecy collides with the excitement of live combat as legendary gods like Loki and Thor try to build a new world and prevent the foretold apocalypse, Ragnarök. The Daily Mail calls it a “phenomenon” and The Telegraph urges people to “fight for a ticket” to experience this one-of-a-kind theatrical experience, as it pulls its audiences into the heart of an epic odyssey of unexpected twists and immense physicality.

Seamlessly blending the comedy and gravitas of Shakespearean theatre with the palpable excitement of live wrestling and a Viking rock soundtrack from legendary Nordic composer Kjell Braaten, Mythos: Ragnarök will transport you to Asgard and beyond. Lovingly created by the same actors who perform it, and honed to hilarious perfection over hundreds of performances, Mythos: Ragnarök has become a cult classic enjoyed by tens of thousands of fans of theatre, wrestling and mythology alike.

Creator and lead actor of Mythos: Ragnarök, Ed Gamester, comments: “When I created this show in 2021 with the intention of uniting theatre and wrestling in a completely original way, I never dreamed it would become an international phenomenon and take me around the world. Every time I arrive in a new city, I am grateful to the bottom of my heart for the chance to do what I love and share these ancient stories with new people.”
